

Cattlemen Days Rodeo

Ashland, MO

August 27, 28 2010 - 8:00PM Each night

Thirty Four years of the finest PRCA rodeo around

For 34 years, the Cedar Valley Riders and the Ashland Optimists have presented their PRCA rodeo in Ashland Missouri, located about 10 miles south of Columbia, Missouri on Highway 63. With one of the finest facilities in the area, and $14,000 added money, riders and fans come each August to witness America's true sport. Mid-States Rodeo Company of Kirksville, Mo, has been our contractor all these years and provides class acts and stock for the enjoyment of the crowds.

Directions:

Take Highway 63 South from Columbia, or Highway 63 North from Jefferson City. Turn off at the Ashland turn off and drive into town (heading West). At the flashing stop light, turn right and follow that road, until you run into the rodeo grounds, about 1 mile.

Honoring Our Military Heros

Again this year, our theme is "Honoring Our Military Heros", in recognition of the sacrifice that veterans current and past have made in keeping our country free. As part of this theme, the Cattlemen Days Rodeo is raising money to send World War II vets to Washington DC on 'Honor Flights'. Check here often to see the various fund raising that we will be doing.

Proceeds from each adult ticket sold will be used to sponsor Honor flights.
