

Benefit Trail Ride

A poster for a benefit trail ride. The top features silhouettes of riders on horseback against a sunset. The text is arranged in a hierarchy: 'SADDLE-UP' in large, stylized letters, followed by 'FOR' in smaller letters, and 'ST JUDE' in the largest, most prominent letters. Below this, the date 'SATURDAY APRIL 13TH, 2013' is centered. A list of activities follows, including sign-up, clinics, and an auction. Contact information for Paula and Brad is provided, along with the location at Lost Valley Lake Resort. A note states that the benefit is open to the public and includes primitive camping. A final note requires participants to bring their own horse and have a current negative Coggins test.
